

Many individuals with PWS have sensory integration deficits in their vestibular, proprioceptive, tactile and oral-motor systems. A sensory integration program designed by an Occupational Therapist is the most common form of treatment.

Learn more &
make a donation
by scanning the
QR code

*Proceeds
benefit:*

